Teacher's Guide

- Provide students with small cards showing the r-blends to help them focus on the initial sound pattern.
- Have students read each word aloud before sorting to reinforce decoding and oral blending.
- Support emerging readers by reviewing one blend at a time before giving the full list.
- For higher-level students, add extra multisyllabic r-blend words and let them expand the chart.
- Encourage students to compare columns and notice patterns, such as which blends have the most words and why.
