Teacher's Guide

- Encourage students to read the sentence aloud and listen for meaning clues before choosing the word.
- Provide picture cues or a mini chart of r-controlled vowel patterns for students who need additional support.
- For an extra challenge, have students write their own sentence using one of the remaining word bank words.
- For small group practice, let students sort the words into ar, or, er, ir, and ur categories after completing the worksheet to reinforce pattern recognition.
