

Name _____

R-Vowel Reader

Directions: Read the passage carefully. Then answer the questions.

Carson loved exploring the forest behind his house. Early one morning, he heard a sharp chirp from a little bird perched on a branch. Carson carefully stepped over the thick ferns as he turned toward a narrow path. Farther in, he found a small turtle resting near a patch of bright purple flowers. Carson sat quietly, watching the bird swirl through the air as a soft breeze moved across the forest floor.

1. Where was Carson exploring?

2. What sound did Carson hear at the start of the story?

3. What two animals did Carson see?

4. What color were the flowers near the turtle?

5. What was the bird doing at the end of the passage?
