Teacher's Guide

- Differentiation:
  - Read each paragraph aloud for students who need support with fluency.
  - Allow students to highlight clue words before matching purposes.
  - Ask advanced students to write one sentence explaining why their choice is correct.
- Engagement Tips:
  - Turn each paragraph into a quick class vote before independent work.
  - Let students act out the entertaining paragraph.
  - Create a purpose corner in the room for each answer choice and let students move to their pick.
- Extension Ideas:
  - Have students write one new paragraph for each purpose.
  - Sort classroom texts into purpose groups.
  - Connect this skill to writing by having students name their purpose before starting a draft.
