Online Boundaries

Directions: Read each digital exchange carefully. Decide whether consent and boundaries were respected. Write your answer and explain why.

Case Study 1: Text Message Exchange

Ava: Hey, I saw your post from last night. Mind if I share it?

Liam: I'd rather you didn't. It was just for my followers.

Ava: Come on, it's funny! Everyone should see it.

Liam: Please don't.

*Was consent respected? ( Yes / No )
Why or why not?*

Case Study 2: Group Chat

Sam: Let's add Maya to our chat.

Chris: She doesn't even know everyone here. Maybe we should ask her first.

Sam: She'll be fine! I'll just add her now.

Chris: That's not cool.

*Was consent respected? ( Yes / No )
Why or why not?*

Case Study 3: Social Media Post

Jordan: I took a cool picture of us at lunch. Can I tag you in it?

Taylor: I'm not comfortable being tagged, but thanks for asking.

Jordan: No problem, I'll just post it without the tag.

*Was consent respected? ( Yes / No )
Why or why not?*

Case Study 4: Private Message

Eli: You should send me a photo; I won't show anyone, promise.

Noah: I don't want to.

Eli: Don't be like that. It's not a big deal.
