Teacher's Guide

- Skill focus: Students practice hearing and comparing ending sounds to decide if words rhyme.
- How to use: Read each pair once, then have students repeat the pair quietly before choosing Yes or No.
- Differentiation:
 - Support: Stretch the ending sounds (caaa-t, haaa-t) and point out the matching ending.
 - Challenge: After answering, students say a new rhyme for each "Yes" pair (cat, hat, bat).
- Engagement: Turn it into a quick class routine: students show a thumbs up for Yes and hands flat for No, then circle.
- Extension: Students create two of their own pairs, one that rhymes and one that does not, then swap with a partner to solve.
