Teacher's Guide

- Objective: Teach students how to recognize and act out positive, respectful responses in everyday social situations.
- Differentiation Tips:
 - Read each scenario aloud for emerging readers and pause before the options.
 - Offer visual cues or cards showing each possible reaction.
 - Allow verbal answers instead of written ones for students with writing challenges.
- Engagement Ideas:
 - Turn each question into a short skit where groups act out both the wrong and right responses.
 - Encourage students to discuss why the correct answer is the most respectful choice.
- Extension Activities:
 - Have students write or draw their own "Choose the Best Response" scenario.
 - Create a class "Kind Choices Wall" with examples of positive actions they've seen in real life.
