Teacher's Guide

- Remind students that many original numbers can round to the same value.
- Review the range of numbers that round to each benchmark before students begin.
- Support struggling students by having them identify the lowest and highest possible numbers before choosing one.
- Challenge advanced students to write the smallest and largest possible numbers that would round to each given value.
- Have partners compare different answers and explain why both can be correct.
- Extend the activity by asking students to create two new "rounded number" challenges for classmates to solve.
