

Name _____

Run-On Or Fragment

Directions: Read each item carefully. Decide if it is a Run-On (two or more sentences joined incorrectly) or a Fragment (an incomplete thought). Write R for Run-On or F for Fragment in the boxes. There may also be some complete sentences, in which case, write C.

1. Because I was late to the game.
2. We wanted to see the new movie it was sold out.
3. The teacher explained the project clearly.
4. Walking through the park on a windy day.
5. The dog barked loudly the cat hissed in response.
6. Sarah enjoys painting, but she also likes to play the piano.
7. When the bus finally arrived.
8. The lights flickered we didn't know what was happening.
9. After finishing my homework.
10. The children laughed until their stomachs hurt they could not stop.