

Name _____

The Run-On Diner

Directions: Each sentence below is a run-on. Choose one “dish” from the menu to fix it. Rewrite the sentence correctly on the line. Be creative, no two corrections have to look the same!

Appetizers (Periods)

Split the run-on into two shorter sentences.

Main Course (Semicolons)

Join the clauses with a semicolon.

Side Dish (FANBOYS)

Use a comma + a coordinating conjunction (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so).

Dessert (Subordinators)

Use a subordinating word (because, although, since, when, if, etc.) to connect ideas.

1. The sun was shining we decided to eat lunch outside.

2. Sarah loves to paint she rarely has time on school nights.

3. The storm came quickly the kids ran for shelter.

4. I finished my book it was the best story I had ever read.

5. The bus was late we missed the first ten minutes of the movie.

6. He practiced the piano every day he wanted to impress his teacher.
