

Name _____

Snapshot Summary Script

Directions: Read the short play script below silently once to understand the characters, setting, and main event. Perform the script aloud with your partner(s), focusing on expression and natural conversation flow. After finishing, take turns giving a one-sentence spoken summary that captures the scene's main idea. Write your final summary in the space provided.

Mini Script: "The Art Show Mix-Up"

Characters:

Nina - a careful painter

Derek - her forgetful classmate

Mr. Lopez - the art teacher

(Scene: The school art room the morning of the art show.)

Mr. Lopez: (checking his clipboard) All right, everyone—your paintings should be displayed in alphabetical order by last name.

Nina: (looking around) Um, Mr. Lopez... I think something's wrong.

Derek: (confused) Yeah, like, why is my painting of a dog labeled "Sunset by Nina Perez"?

Nina: (worried) Wait—then where's my "Sunset"?

Mr. Lopez: (realizing) Ah! It looks like the labels were switched. Derek, Nina—please trade places and fix them.

Derek: (grinning) No wonder people thought my dog looked like an abstract sky!

Nina: (laughing) And I thought everyone was being polite about my "weird-shaped sun."

(They both laugh as they swap the labels.)

My One-Sentence Summary: