

Name _____

Expressive Reading Drill

Directions: Read each sentence three times, each time using a different emotion: happy, serious, and surprised. Focus on how your voice changes with each emotion: pitch, pace, and volume. After reading, identify which emotion made the sentence sound most natural or expressive and explain why.

1. The bus finally arrived at the stop.

2. We found a tiny kitten hiding behind the trash bin.

3. The lights suddenly went out during the movie.

4. Tomorrow, we'll start our big science project together.

5. He opened the envelope and read the letter slowly.

6. I can't believe how tall the tree has grown!

7. The teacher smiled when she saw everyone working quietly.

8. The thunder roared, and the windows rattled.

9. She practiced her lines until every word sounded perfect.

10. The old clock struck midnight, echoing through the hall.
