

Name _____

The Fragment Test

Directions: Read each item carefully. Decide if it is a Complete Sentence (C) or a Fragment (F). Write C or F in the blank. If it is a fragment, think about what is missing (subject, verb, or complete thought).

Warm-Up: Quick Identifications

1. ____ Because I was tired.
2. ____ The cat leapt onto the windowsill.
3. ____ When the storm ended.
4. ____ Running through the tall grass.
5. ____ My brother and I built a treehouse.

Tricky Cases

6. ____ After the concert was over, we went for ice cream.
7. ____ Such a beautiful painting on the wall.
8. ____ Although she studied all night.
9. ____ The students finished their projects early.
10. ____ A story with a surprising ending.

Paragraph Challenge: Read the short paragraph below. Some sentences are fragments. Put C or F at the end of each one.

I love spending summer at the lake. → _____

Especially when the water sparkles in the sun. → _____

My cousins and I swim for hours. → _____

Until we are too tired to move. → _____

We always end the day with a campfire. → _____