

Name _____

The Missing Who

Directions: Each sentence below is a fragment because it is missing a subject (the “who” or “what” the sentence is about). Add an appropriate subject to turn each fragment into a complete sentence. Be sure the subject makes sense with the rest of the sentence.

1. _____ ran across the playground.
2. _____ finished the homework on time.
3. _____ lives in the big blue house on the corner.
4. _____ are barking loudly in the backyard.
5. _____ is playing the piano beautifully.
6. After the long hike, _____ collapsed on the couch.
7. In the middle of the storm, _____ knocked on the door.
8. During the game, _____ scored the winning point.
9. While cooking dinner, _____ burned the spaghetti sauce.
10. At the museum, _____ admired the ancient paintings.

Paragraph Fix: Revise this short passage by adding subjects where they’re missing:

Went to the carnival on Friday night. Ate cotton candy and popcorn.
Played games until midnight. Won a big stuffed bear as a prize.
