Directions: Read the passage carefully. Some of the sentences are fragments. Underline each fragment, then rewrite it so it becomes a complete sentence. Be sure each correction includes a subject, a verb, and expresses a complete thought.

Last weekend, my family went camping in the mountains. A trip full of excitement and adventure. We set up our tent near the lake. While listening to the birds singing in the trees. My dad started a campfire, and we roasted marshmallows. Because the night grew very cold. The stars shone brightly in the dark sky. Making the whole place look magical. We stayed up late telling stories. Until we were too tired to keep our eyes open.
