Ivy-Covered Secrets

Directions: Read the passage below. Highlight or underline all words and phrases that describe the setting. Then, list at least three details that helped you picture where the story takes place.

The old library stood at the corner of Maple Street, its tall stone walls covered in ivy. Inside, rows of wooden shelves stretched to the ceiling, filled with dusty books. The air smelled faintly of paper and ink, and the glow of a single lamp lit the reading table. Outside, the rain tapped gently against the tall windows.
