

Name _____

Implied Voices

Directions: Replace each telling sentence with a line of dialogue that shows the character's emotion without naming the feeling. Use tone, word choice, and context clues to imply how the character feels.

1. She was frustrated. (Write a dialogue line that reveals frustration through tone or wording.)

2. He felt proud of himself. (Write a dialogue line that shows pride without stating it.)

3. Maya was scared. (Write a dialogue line that hints at her fear through questions, hesitations, or word choice.)

4. Jonah felt jealous. (Write a dialogue line that suggests jealousy through what he says or how he reacts.)

5. Olivia was surprised. (Write a dialogue line that shows surprise through her voice or the way she responds.)