Yesterday, Mia woke up early because she wanted to meet her friend at the park. She ate breakfast quickly and then she walked to the bus stop. On the bus, she talked with her neighbor and read a magazine. When Mia arrived at the park, her friend already waited for her. They played soccer for an hour and then went to get ice cream. At the end of the day, Mia felt tired but happy.

Teacher Notes / Guide

- Objective: Develop students' ability to spot and correct tense errors, reinforcing mastery of the simple past tense.
- Method: Students edit the paragraph, actively applying past tense knowledge.
- Differentiation:
  - For beginners: Provide a verb bank with the correct past tense forms.
  - For advanced learners: Have students create their own error-filled paragraph and exchange with a partner for correction.
- Extension Idea: Ask students to write a short summary of their own day, then intentionally add 3-4 tense mistakes. A partner must "hunt" and fix them.
