“The Great Cleanup”

The morning sun shone over the schoolyard as students gathered for Community Clean-Up Day. Mr. Rivera, their teacher, clapped his hands and said, “All right, team! Let’s make this place shine brighter than ever.” Leah grinned and replied, “I brought extra trash bags—just in case we run out.”

“That’s the spirit,” said Mr. Rivera, handing her a pair of gloves. Near the basketball court, Ethan groaned, “Why did I get stuck with gum duty?” Leah laughed. “Because you’re the only one brave enough to scrape it!” By noon, the playground sparkled. “We did it!” shouted Ethan. “Yes,” said Mr. Rivera, “and we made a real difference for our community.”
