Teacher's Guide

- This activity helps students use context clues to complete simple geography facts about South America.
- Read each sentence aloud once before students begin, especially for grades 3 and 4.
- Encourage students to reread the full sentence after filling in each blank to check if it makes sense.

Differentiation Tips

- Provide a small word bank for students who need extra support.
- Allow advanced students to rewrite each sentence with added details for enrichment.
- Offer visual supports such as a map or labeled pictures of places like the Andes or Amazon.

Engagement Ideas

- Turn the sentences into a scavenger hunt by placing clues around the room.
- Have students draw one of the locations they filled in and label its main features.
- Encourage quick partner discussions where students explain how they used context clues.
