Teacher's Guide

- Review how the spr blend sounds and practice saying real spr words before students begin.
- Encourage students to read each word out loud. Listening for meaning and sound patterns helps them decide if a word is real.
- Support emerging readers by allowing them to compare each word to a small anchor list of real spr words.
- For extension, students can create two new words: one real spr word and one silly spr word, then share them with a partner.
- Provide a visual list of common spr words for learners who need extra confidence identifying real vocabulary.
