Resolution Remix

Directions: Read the passage below. Identify the conflict. Then, rewrite the resolution by imagining a different way the conflict could have been solved. Be sure your new resolution makes sense with the story. Write 3-4 sentences for your new ending.

The Spilled Paint

During art class, Jordan accidentally knocked over a cup of paint onto Mia's poster. Bright red paint spread across her carefully drawn picture. Mia gasped, upset that her hard work might be ruined. Jordan quickly grabbed paper towels and helped wipe it up. Their teacher suggested they add red splashes to make the poster look like a creative "explosion of color." By the end, both students laughed at how the accident turned into something fun.
