Resolution Remix Answer Key

Conflict: Jordan spilled red paint on Mia's poster, upsetting her.

Original Resolution: Jordan helped clean it, and the teacher suggested making it an "explosion of color," turning the accident into something fun.

Possible Alternate Resolutions (student responses may vary):

- Jordan apologized and promised to help Mia redo the poster after class.
- Mia decided to cover the paint with new drawings, turning the mistake into a different design.
- The teacher let Mia start fresh with new supplies, and Jordan offered to stay after class to help.

Teacher Notes

- Accept any logical rewrite as long as it clearly solves the conflict (not leaving it unresolved).
- Encourage students to think about how character actions and emotions might realistically change the story.
- Reinforce that rewriting the resolution helps students practice flexible thinking and deeper comprehension of story structure.
- Extension: After writing, have students share their new endings aloud and discuss which ones change the tone of the story (e.g., funny, serious, sad, hopeful).
