Name _____

Middle Tension Builder

Directions: Read the beginning and end of the story. Your job is to write a middle section that adds conflict, tension, or a clear obstacle. Make sure it connects smoothly to both the beginning and the end.

Beginning: Arlo arrived at the town science fair with his homemade wind-powered car. He felt excited to show everyone how it worked.

End: Arlo's car zoomed across the finish line during the final demonstration, and the judges clapped for his creativity.

Your Middle With Conflict:

Write what problem happens and how Arlo deals with it.
