Teacher Notes

- This activity reinforces how auxiliaries (do/does, is/are, has/have) must shift correctly with the subject.
- Common error: students forget to drop the -s ending from the verb when adding "does." (e.g., 'Does the teacher explains?' should be 'Does the teacher explain?')
- Encourage students to say the statement and the question aloud. The mismatch often "sounds wrong," helping them self-correct.
- Extension idea: Have students create their own original statements and swap with a partner to transform into questions.
