

Name _____

Agreement Tune-Up

Directions: Each sentence below contains subject-verb agreement errors or tense consistency errors. Rewrite each sentence so that the verbs agree with their subjects and stay consistent in tense.

1. The teacher explain the rules yesterday and gives the class an example.

2. The players runs onto the field last night and score a goal.

3. My brother and I was studying for the exam when the lights go out.

4. The team win the championship last year and celebrates today.

5. Each of the students were responsible for their homework and turns it in on time.

6. The bouquet of flowers smell sweet when it was delivered and still smell fresh now.

7. The committee meet on Monday and decided the outcome.

8. Neither the dog nor the cats was making noise yesterday, but they makes noise today.

9. She have a new book yesterday and reads it quickly.

10. The news spread quickly last week and still spread now.
