

Name _____

Fix The Verb Slip

Directions: Each of the sentences below has a subject-verb agreement error. Rewrite each sentence so that the verb correctly agrees with its subject. Be sure to check whether the subject is singular, plural, compound, or tricky (like collective nouns or words ending in -s that are actually singular).

1. The list of chores include sweeping, dusting, and mopping.

2. The students in the hallway was making too much noise.

3. Either the dog or the cats chases the birds away.

4. My pair of shoes are on the floor.

5. The committee meet at noon to discuss the budget.

6. Everyone in the crowd cheer loudly for the speaker.

7. The news are spreading quickly through the town.

8. Ten dollars were enough to buy the book.

9. The musicians with the drummer plays every Friday night.

10. Neither of the sisters are attending the ceremony.
