

Name _____

Subject-Verb Fusion

Directions: Each item below gives you two short clauses. Combine them into one sentence. Be sure your sentence has correct subject-verb agreement. You may use words like and, but, because, while, or since to join them.

1. The teacher explains the lesson. The students listen carefully.

2. The dog barks loudly. The cats hide under the porch.

3. The players run onto the field. The crowd cheer for them.

4. The committee meets on Tuesday. Its members discuss important issues.

5. The bouquet of roses smells sweet. The lilies in the vase give off a strong fragrance.

6. Neither my brother nor my sisters want to stay home. They prefer going out to dinner.

7. The news travels fast. People in the town react with surprise.

8. The pencil rolls off the desk. The papers scatter on the floor.

9. Each of the students has a notebook. They write down important notes.

10. The team wins the championship. The fans celebrate in the streets.
