

Name _____

Traits Of A Team

Directions: Read each question carefully. Choose the best answer (A-D) that shows a good teamwork quality.

- What does it mean to listen during group work?
 - Talk over others to get your way.
 - Whisper to a friend while someone else talks.
 - Ignore what others say if you disagree.
 - Wait for others to finish before you speak.
- A good teammate is responsible when they:
 - Blame others for mistakes.
 - Forget to do their part.
 - Complete their work on time.
 - Let others do everything.
- Which choice shows fairness in a group?
 - Making sure everyone gets a turn.
 - Taking all the supplies for yourself.
 - Choosing only your friends for your team.
 - Ignoring someone's idea.
- Your group needs to decide on a topic. What is the most cooperative way to choose?
 - Let one person decide alone.
 - Argue until everyone gives up.
 - Vote or combine ideas together.
 - Refuse to change your opinion.
- What shows respect for your teammates?
 - Rolling your eyes when they talk.
 - Taking credit for someone else's idea.
 - Leaving the group early without telling anyone.
 - Using polite words and listening to opinions.
- When a teammate is struggling, what should you do?
 - Ignore them and keep working.
 - Offer to help and encourage them.
 - Laugh at their mistake.
 - Tell the teacher to remove them.
- Why is communication important in teamwork?
 - It helps everyone share ideas and stay organized.
 - It wastes time and causes confusion.
 - It makes one person the boss.
 - It helps people avoid each other.
- What is one sign of good leadership in a group?
 - Telling others what to do without listening.
 - Helping teammates stay on task and feel included.
 - Refusing to take suggestions.
 - Taking over every job.