Teacher's Guide:

- Differentiation Tips:
  - Read the passage aloud and discuss key details before answering questions.
  - Highlight teamwork vocabulary (communicate, share, organize) for comprehension support.
  - Allow verbal responses or sentence starters for reflection questions for students needing writing assistance.
- Engagement Strategies:
  - Have students role-play the scenario and practice solving the conflict as the team did.
  - Create a short class discussion on what happens in real workplaces when people don't communicate.
- Extension Ideas:
  - Ask students to write their own short workplace teamwork scenario and include one teamwork challenge and solution.
  - Connect the lesson to job-readiness skills by identifying real teamwork examples from part-time jobs, clubs, or volunteer settings.
