Teacher's Guide

- Differentiation Tips:
 - Read each example aloud and model tone differences between rude and polite online actions.
 - Simplify the task for learners who need support by providing fewer items or by turning it into a true/false discussion first.
 - Offer visual cue cards for "Do's" (green) and "Don'ts" (red) for sorting practice.
- Engagement Ideas:
 - After matching, have students create two of their own "Do's" and "Don'ts" for classroom discussion.
 - Role-play a respectful vs. disrespectful post and discuss the impact on others.
- Extension Activities:
 - Encourage students to design a "Top 5 Online Etiquette Rules" poster.
 - Have them reflect in writing on one habit they can improve to make their online communication more respectful.
