

Name _____

Online Respect

Directions: Read each situation carefully. Choose the best response (A-D) that shows good digital manners and respectful online communication.

1. You text your friend a question, but they don't reply for several hours. What should you do?
  - A. Send ten more messages asking why they aren't answering.
  - B. Assume they're ignoring you and stop talking to them.
  - C. Post online that they're being rude.
  - D. Wait patiently; they might be busy and reply later.
2. You're added to a group chat for a class project. What's the most polite thing to do first?
  - A. Say "Hi everyone!" and introduce yourself.
  - B. Immediately leave the group.
  - C. Ignore everyone until the project is due.
  - D. Send a bunch of unrelated memes.
3. Your friend misunderstood your message and got upset. What's the best way to fix it?
  - A. Argue and insist you're right.
  - B. Ignore their reaction.
  - C. Clarify kindly what you meant and apologize if needed.
  - D. Screenshot their message and show others.
4. You're about to post something funny about your classmate. What should you do first?
  - A. Post it anyway-it's just a joke.
  - B. Ask the classmate if they're okay with it before sharing.
  - C. Tag them without asking.
  - D. Add a funny caption and hope they don't see it.
5. You receive a text with a private message about someone else. What's the right choice?
  - A. Share it with your group for fun.
  - B. Forward it to the person being talked about.
  - C. Keep it private and don't spread it.
  - D. Use it in a meme.

Name _____

Online Respect

6. Someone texts you something rude. What's the best response?
- A. Reply with a rude message too.
  - B. Make a sarcastic post about them.
  - C. Tell everyone what they said.
  - D. Take a deep breath and don't reply right away.
7. You notice that someone hasn't been included in a group message. What's a kind choice?
- A. Leave them out-it's easier that way.
  - B. Add them and say, "Hey, we wanted to include you too!"
  - C. Wait for them to ask to join.
  - D. Pretend you didn't notice.
8. A teacher emails you about a missing assignment. What's a respectful reply?
- A. "Whatever."
  - B. "Okay."
  - C. "Thank you for letting me know. I'll send it as soon as I can."
  - D. Don't reply at all.
9. Your friend keeps texting while you're in class. What's the right thing to do?
- A. Keep replying secretly.
  - B. Turn off notifications until after class.
  - C. Show the teacher.
  - D. Leave your phone out on your desk.
10. Someone accidentally sent you a text meant for someone else. What's polite?
- A. Let them know kindly they sent it to the wrong person.
  - B. Ignore it completely.
  - C. Make fun of them for it.
  - D. Share it with your friends.

