Teacher's Guide

- Differentiation Tips:

  o Read each question aloud for students who need auditory support.

  o Allow students to act out correct and incorrect digital manners as short role-plays.

  o Simplify vocabulary for emerging readers by defining terms like "clarify" or "forward."

- Engagement Ideas:

  o Have students create posters or short skits showing good vs. bad texting habits.

  o Discuss how online tone can be misunderstood and brainstorm ways to make messages sound kind.

- Extension Activities:

  o Students can write a short "Digital Citizenship Pledge" summarizing how they will communicate online.

  o Encourage them to share one positive online message with a classmate or friend to model good etiquette.
