Historical Voices

Directions: Read the two prompts below. Imagine you are the person described in each box. Write a short journal entry for each person, focusing on what they see, hear, and feel on their special day.

Part 1: The Year 1621

Imagine you are a child at the Plimoth Settlement. You are helping your community prepare for a three day harvest celebration. There are no grocery stores or ovens. You have worked hard all year to help the garden grow.

Journal Prompt: What does the air smell like near the cooking fires? What are you wearing, and what is one chore you did today to help with the feast?

Part 2: The Year 2025

Imagine you are a child today. Your family is getting ready for Thanksgiving dinner. You might have a car ride to a relative's house or watch a parade on a digital screen.

Journal Prompt: What sounds do you hear in your house today? What is your favorite modern food on the table, and how are you spending your time before dinner starts?
