

Name _____

Articles Fact Check

Directions: Read each statement about the Articles of Confederation. Write True or False. If the statement is false, rewrite it in the space to make it correct.

_____ 1. Congress could tax citizens directly to pay for national needs.

_____ 2. Each state kept most of its own power and independence.

_____ 3. All thirteen states had to agree to change the Articles.

_____ 4. The national government could not force states to send soldiers.

_____ 5. Congress could easily control trade between the states.

_____ 6. The government struggled to repay money borrowed during the Revolution.

_____ 7. Congress could make treaties with foreign nations.

_____ 8. The national government had a strong leader who could enforce laws.