Teacher's Guide

- Review the four main three-letter blends (str, spr, spl, scr) before beginning to help students decode confidently.
- Model how to check if a word is real by blending slowly, noticing vowels, and asking if it sounds like a known English word.
- For students who need support, provide a mini word bank of real blend words so they can compare sounds.
- For extension, have students pick two real words and write a short sentence or create their own nonsense blend word list to read aloud for fun decoding practice.
