Teacher's Guide

- Quick implementation: Review how to count elapsed hours and remaining minutes before students begin.
- Differentiation: Let students use a number line or clock model to find elapsed time in smaller steps.
- Differentiation: Challenge advanced students to convert each answer to total minutes.
- Engagement: Present the shifts as a weekly employee timecard and have students act as payroll assistants.
- Extension: Have students add the time worked for all 10 shifts to find the combined work time.
