Teacher's Guide

- Quick implementation: Have students calculate the full elapsed shift first, then subtract the unpaid meal break.
- Differentiation: Allow students to use timelines or clock models to calculate elapsed time.
- Differentiation: Provide the elapsed shift length for students who need support so they can focus on subtracting breaks.
- Engagement: Assign students the role of café payroll assistants checking staff timecards before payday.
- Extension: Have students convert each actual work time into decimal hours for payroll.
