Teacher's Guide

- Quick implementation: Remind students to find the full time between clock-in and clock-out before subtracting the unpaid break.
- Differentiation: Provide elapsed shift times for students who need support, leaving only the break subtraction to complete.
- Differentiation: Allow students to draw timelines or use clock models to calculate elapsed time.
- Engagement: Assign students the role of payroll assistants responsible for completing missing timecard totals.
- Extension: Have students convert each completed daily total into total minutes.
