

Name _____

Connect And Combine

Directions: Each item has two (sometimes three) short sentences. Combine them into one clear sentence using a transition word or connector. You may rearrange the order of the sentences if needed. Suggested connectors are listed in parentheses, but you may use another that fits well.

1. I studied for the test. I forgot my notes at home. (however, although)

2. The sun set quickly. It grew dark. (so, therefore)

3. We visited the museum. We also toured the city park. (in addition, furthermore)

4. My sister practices piano daily. She plays beautifully. (as a result, consequently)

5. The restaurant was crowded. The service was still fast. (yet, nevertheless)

6. The car broke down. We walked to the nearest gas station. (so, therefore)

7. He enjoys playing basketball. He also likes soccer. (and, as well as)

8. The cake looked delicious. It was too sweet to eat. (but, although)

9. I turned in my project early. The teacher praised my work. (because, since)

10. We didn't pack warm clothes. The weather was colder than expected.
(because, since)
