Teacher's Guide

- Have students underline the exact sentence in the passage that proves each correction.
- For support, guide students to change only one or two words in the false statements.
- For engagement, let partners read one false statement aloud and help each other fix it.
- For extension, ask students to create one new false statement for a classmate to repair.
- For enrichment, challenge students to explain why the original sentence was inaccurate.
