

Name _____

Relationship Match-Up

Directions: Read each short description below. Then, match it to the correct type of relationship: Peer, Adult, or Authority. Think about who the person is and what kind of respectful interaction fits best. Write your answer in the blanks.

1. You and your best friend plan a group project together and share ideas equally.

2. You thank your coach for giving you extra time to practice after school.

3. You ask your classmate politely if they want to work with you on the science lab.

4. You greet your teacher in the morning and say, "Good morning, Mr. Grant."

5. You help your neighbor carry groceries into the house.

6. You talk with your principal about ways to make the school more welcoming.

7. You remind your little sister to knock before entering your room.

8. You tell a police officer where you saw a lost pet so they can help find it.

9. You ask your grandmother to share her favorite recipe with you.

10. You apologize to a friend after interrupting them while they were talking.
