

Name _____

Social Smarts Quiz

Directions: Read each question carefully. Choose the best answer (A-D) that shows the most respectful and appropriate way to act or speak in that situation.

1. You see your teacher walking into the classroom. What should you say?
  - A. "Hey, what's up?"
  - B. "Yo, you're late too!"
  - C. "Sup, teach?"
  - D. "Good morning, Mrs. Lee."
2. You meet a new student your age in the cafeteria. What is the best way to greet them?
  - A. "Hi, want to sit here?"
  - B. "Good afternoon, sir."
  - C. "Excuse me, I'm your classmate."
  - D. "Hey, stop looking at me."
3. You want to ask your principal a question. What is the most polite way to start?
  - A. "Principal, I need to talk right now."
  - B. "Hey, got a sec?"
  - C. "Excuse me, Principal Garcia, may I ask a question?"
  - D. "Yo, listen up!"
4. Your friend accidentally bumps into you in the hallway. What is the best response?
  - A. "Watch where you're going!"
  - B. "It's okay, I know it was an accident."
  - C. "I'll tell the teacher on you."
  - D. "You're so clumsy."
5. You need help from your parent with a project. What should you say?
  - A. "You better help me now!"
  - B. "I don't need your advice."
  - C. "I'll just do it myself."
  - D. "Please help me finish this, Mom."

Name _____

Social Smarts Quiz

6. You want to thank a police officer who helped your class cross the street safely. What is the best way?
  - A. "Nice job, dude!"
  - B. "Whatever, that's your job."
  - C. "Thank you for keeping us safe, Officer."
  - D. "Bye!"
7. You want to borrow your classmate's colored pencils. What should you say?
  - A. "Hand them over."
  - B. "Can I please borrow your colored pencils?"
  - C. "You don't need those."
  - D. "Give me one."
8. You are leaving the library after talking to the librarian. What's the polite thing to say?
  - A. "Thanks for your help!"
  - B. "See ya!"
  - C. "You're done talking now."
  - D. "Whatever."

