Teacher's Guide

- Review key vocabulary such as Highlands, Union Jack, and landscape.
- Read the statements aloud for students who benefit from hearing the text.
- Encourage students to use clues from previous lessons or maps.

Differentiation Tips

- Provide sentence frames for emerging readers, such as "This is true because..."
- Allow advanced students to rewrite the false statements correctly.
- Offer partner or small group discussion before students decide on True or False.

Engagement Ideas

- Show images of the Highlands, Stonehenge, and the Giant's Causeway.
- Use a large classroom map to point out the four countries of the UK.
- Play a short call and response warm up where students shout "True" or "False" for practice.

Extension Activities

- Have students create three new True or False statements about the UK.
- Ask them to draw one UK landmark and label it with a fact.
- Assign a brief paragraph explaining which UK country they would most like to visit and why.
