

Name _____

Name That Weather

Weather changes from day to day, and we can often tell what kind of weather it is just by looking outside. In this activity, you'll match a picture description to the correct weather name: Sunny, Rainy, Snowy, or Cloudy.

Picture Descriptions

Read each description and write the correct weather type (Sunny, Rainy, Snowy, or Cloudy) in the blank.

1. _____ The sky is bright blue with no clouds, and sunlight warms the ground.
2. _____ Big gray clouds fill the sky, but no precipitation is falling.
3. _____ White flakes are falling from the sky, covering the ground in a soft layer.
4. _____ People are carrying umbrellas as water falls steadily from the sky.
5. _____ The sun is shining brightly, and shadows are sharp and clear.
6. _____ The air is cold, and thick clouds are releasing snow.
7. _____ The day feels damp, and puddles are forming on sidewalks.
8. _____ A mix of sun and gray clouds are in the sky at the same time.

Reflection

Which type of weather do you like best, and why? Write two sentences.
