

Name _____

Who Vs. Whom Choice

Directions: Read each sentence carefully. Underline the correct pronoun in parentheses - who or whom. Think about whether the word is the subject (use who) or the object (use whom).

1. The detective wanted to know (who / whom) had stolen the missing emerald.
2. The artist, (who / whom) everyone admired, painted the mural downtown.
3. To (who / whom) should I address this mysterious letter?
4. The teacher praised the student (who / whom) completed the project early.
5. Do you know (who / whom) will be leading the new club this semester?
6. The coach couldn't remember (who / whom) he had chosen for team captain.
7. The writer, (who / whom) I met at the book festival, signed my novel.
8. The hiker (who / whom) climbed the tallest mountain shared amazing photos.
9. I don't know (who / whom) they hired for the new assistant position.
10. The award went to the student (who / whom) the judges found most creative.