

Name _____

Pronoun Operation Room

Directions: Each sentence below has a "grammar injury." Perform sentence surgery by correcting the use of who or whom. After fixing each sentence, label the corrected pronoun as S (subject) or O (object). Write your final corrected sentence beneath each one.

- _____ 1. The teacher wasn't sure whom left their backpack in the hallway.

- _____ 2. I don't know who the coach selected for the championship team.

- _____ 3. The detective interviewed the suspect who everyone believed was guilty.

- _____ 4. The writer, whom published several novels, spoke at the library.

- _____ 5. Who should I thank for the kind gift?

- _____ 6. The student whom helped organize the event received a leadership award.

- _____ 7. The hikers, one of who forgot their compass, still reached the summit.

- _____ 8. The director praised the actors, all of who performed with great passion.

- _____ 9. To who did you lend your favorite book?

- _____ 10. The singer whom was chosen for the solo practiced every afternoon.