

Name _____

Doer Vs. Receiver

Directions: Each sentence below is missing part of its structure: a subject or an object is implied but not stated. Decide whether who or whom correctly fits the blank. Use clues from the surrounding words to figure out if the missing element acts as the doer (subject) or the receiver (object) of the action.

1. She's the one _____ I thought would arrive first.
2. The teacher praised the student _____ the class voted most helpful.
3. You can't imagine _____ they chose to represent the school at the competition.
4. I wonder _____ she believed was honest enough to keep the secret.
5. The detective couldn't determine _____ the evidence was meant to expose.
6. Tell me _____ you think can solve this puzzle.
7. I don't know _____ the letter was addressed to.
8. The director selected _____ she felt could handle the lead role.
9. No one remembered _____ the message was originally written for.
10. The coach asked _____ we expected to perform best under pressure.