Teacher's Guide

- Skill Focus: This activity strengthens understanding of subject vs. object pronoun usage by contrasting who (subject) and whom (object).
- Differentiation Tips:
 - For students needing extra support, remind them to replace the pronoun with he/she or him/her - if him/her fits, use whom.
 - For advanced learners, have them write one original sentence using who and another using whom correctly in context.
- Engagement Idea: Turn this into a "grammar mystery." Have students circle all the clues (verbs or prepositions) that help them decide which pronoun fits.
- Extension Activity: Invite students to create a short dialogue between two detectives debating the use of who or whom in a sentence.
