

Name _____

Pronoun Clause Clinic

Directions: Read each sentence carefully. Decide whether who or whom is correct. Then identify the subject, verb, and object within the clause that contains the pronoun to justify your choice. Write your corrected sentence and label the parts below each one.

1. The professor, _____ everyone respected, retired last year.
Subject: _____ | Verb: _____ | Object: _____
2. The student _____ completed the most research presented first at the seminar.
Subject: _____ | Verb: _____ | Object: _____
3. I don't know _____ the committee selected for the award.
Subject: _____ | Verb: _____ | Object: _____
4. The scientist, _____ we met after the lecture, explained her new theory.
Subject: _____ | Verb: _____ | Object: _____
5. Tell me _____ you believe can solve the problem fastest.
Subject: _____ | Verb: _____ | Object: _____
6. The artist, _____ paintings were displayed in the gallery, spoke about creativity.
Subject: _____ | Verb: _____ | Object: _____
7. I'm not sure _____ the manager chose to lead the project.
Subject: _____ | Verb: _____ | Object: _____
8. The winner, _____ everyone thought would lose, shocked the audience.
Subject: _____ | Verb: _____ | Object: _____
9. The speaker, _____ the panel invited to the conference, received a standing ovation.
Subject: _____ | Verb: _____ | Object: _____
10. The athlete _____ we watched compete set a new record.
Subject: _____ | Verb: _____ | Object: _____